BOTTOM LINE UP FRONT

Even at a team of one, name the functions explicitly — sell, onboard, run — so that when you hire (Pack 13), responsibilities transfer cleanly rather than being reconstructed. Clear ownership prevents the "everything is mine and nothing is done" trap of an early founder-run operation.

Function ownership (scales with the team)

Function	Owner at launch	Owner once pod hired (Pack 13)
Prospecting / outreach	You	SDR
Discovery / demo / close	You	Vertical AE
Trial onboarding / retention	You	Implementation lead
Strategy / P&L / RRUP relationship	You	You (MD)
Compliance / admin	You	You / outsourced

DESIGN THE ORG BEFORE YOU NEED IT

Naming functions now means each hire steps into a defined role with documented SOPs (Pack 12), not a vague "help out." That's what lets a lean team scale without chaos — and what a partner-CEO wants to see you've thought through.

Implication

This mapping is the bridge from the daily/weekly/monthly rhythms (this Pack) to the staffing plan (Pack 13). It keeps ownership clear at every team size.
