BOTTOM LINE UP FRONT

Run a full-cycle, trial-led motion: qualified outreach → 20-minute vertical demo → free 30-day trial with hands-on onboarding → paid conversion. The free trial is the centre of gravity — it converts "unproven newcomer" into "already running in your business" before money is discussed.

The motion, stage by stage

Stage	Goal	Owner	Exit criterion
1. Prospect	Booked, qualified demo	SDR	ICP-fit prospect agrees to 20-min demo
2. Discover	Surface + quantify pain	AE	2–3 concrete pains costed (leaky bucket)
3. Demo	Show the pain solved, live	AE	Prospect sees their own workflow run
4. Trial	30-day hands-on trial	AE + Implementation	Data migrated, team using it by day 7
5. Convert	Trial → paid	AE	Signed contract via e-signature

Why trial-led

PROOF BEATS PERSUASION

For a newcomer to the UK, nothing de-risks the buy like the prospect running the software in their own business for free for 30 days. It flips the burden of proof, neutralises the "you're new here" objection, and lets the product's genuine strengths (Work-Flow engine, breadth) do the selling. The onboarding process (Pack 12) is what makes the trial convert rather than fizzle.

The lean-team adaptation

With a small pod (Pack 13), the AE runs discovery → demo → close as one relationship (no SDR/AE hand-off friction), while a dedicated Implementation lead owns the trial's success. This keeps trust with one commercial contact and protects conversion.

Implication

Every metric (Pack 10), SOP (Pack 12) and staffing choice (Pack 13) serves this motion. The two highest-leverage skills to hire and train for are running a sharp vertical demo and driving a trial to adoption by day 7.
